I found Arlo Hennings' Guitarlo a wonderfully open and compelling memoir of an adventurous soul. No one will be able to read this book without asking, "And what am I doing with MY life?" - Jim Heynen, author, "The Boys," "Ordinary Sins," "The Fall of Alice K." Former book editor, Minneapolis Star and Tribune.

Arlo Hennings more or less sums it up in his sprawling, sometimes rambling and perhaps sometimes imagined, memoir "Guitarlo." A number of successes, the inevitable number of failures and a treasure trove of adventures and experiences make up this narrative, from Minneapolis to Woodstock to L.A. to Hawaii to South Africa, back to Minneapolis and eventually to Bali. Like many creative, restless ...
